My Biography

A Lebanese-Canadian bilingual speaker, May has led more than 500 Live Events with some of the most renowned organizations in the region. Over the past 15 years, these organizations trusted her, time after time, to present their most important internal and public facing events. They placed their confidence in her knowing that she would transform what is typically a "corporate event" into "one to remember".

From Workshops, Team Building Sessions, Trade Shows, Interviews, Vodcasts and Product Launches, Conventions and Galas, May is well-known for her versatility and range. Always standing out by connecting with her audience through her positive energy and strong presence.

Based in Dubai, May has consulted and presented for a large number of regional and international renowned organizations including but not limited to GITEX, Henkel, Porsche, Nissan, Etisalat, Emaar, Dubai Holding, Unilever, Huawei, FIFA, Mobil, Dubai Airports, LG, JLL, Aster, Acer and Carolina Herrera.

She formerly held Senior Marketing roles at Dubai Properties, Huawei and TECOM Investments.

May's extensive wealth of knowledge and experience in the Marketing and Events Sector serve as her competitive advantage. She is a self-motivated, goal-oriented, and passionate team player who understands exactly what goes on behind the scenes.

May holds a BA in Communication and Media Studies & Advertising and Public Relations from Middlesex University, UK.

She understands the importance of communicating effectively and adapting her delivery style and content to perfectly suit the event objectives and the audience requirements.
